Secretaries' Column Oren Redsun

Hello everyone this month I found some websites on airplane trimming. I want to thank Kerry Roberson for the website updates. One of the best ones I noted is the Travis weather info. It now shows directly the wind conditions and the past 24 hrs. Just to note in the last week the winds have been above 15 most of the week Well I think that warrants more building time. (I wish)

See you at the field SOON
